Teatr Biuro Podróży (Poznań)

Funding provided by Fundusz Wsparcia Kultury and Festiwal Malta Poznań 2021

Pandemic anxiety, the threat of separation or the passing of a loved one have become an unexpectedly common experience. This latest performance by Biuro Podróży Theatre is an artistic response to loneliness, alienation and longing. It tells the story of two universal characters: Orpheus and Euridice. The love between them is stronger than death. Unable to come to terms with the loss of his beloved, Orpheus sets out to find her. He arrives in a hell filled with rats, where he has to confront his memories and uncertainties. Earthly reality intertwines with the underground metaphysical world, tampering with time, truth and hope. What is true and what is a delusion? How will the journey end?
