

ŻELAZNY PANCERZ

concert by Tomek „Kowal” Kowalski and his band

Natural born rocker and charismatic persona Tomek "Kowal" Kowalski is the winner of the 4th edition of the program "Must Be The Music". With his brilliant performance of the song "Modlitwa III," Kowalski won the audience's hearts. On the stage of our theatre, he played the role of Ryszard Riedel, the original lead singer of the Polish blues-rock band Dżem, in the performance "Skazany na bluesa". In June 2014, Tomek suffered a serious accident and, although still recovering, he is now slowly getting back to work. As he says, gigs and contact with the audience give him the incredible strength.

"Kowal" is charismatic. He's a born rocker with a unique voice who, accompanied by professional musicians, guarantees energy, good music and great entertainment, rock style.

Everywhere he appears, he brings enthusiasm and a smile to people's faces. He has great contact with the audience. During the concert, as a part of the 5th International "OPEN THE DOOR" Festival, he will perform songs by Dżem, Deep Purple, Free, and Queen, as well as a selection of original songs from his latest album, "Za drzwiami raju".
